ESTEEM DIVINE ASSIGNMENTS

"Furthermore David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for the Lord God." 1 Chronicles 29:1 (KJV).

There are some saints in Christ who esteem their education, their job, their self-centered interests than the assignment of the Lord.

How do you see what the Lord tells you to do?

Anything God tells you to do, is great!

The assignments of the Lord benefit generations.

You have to see the Lord's work with the eyes of your spirit and look into generations ahead. David the king said, "the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for the Lord God."

What makes the assignment great is who the work is for. You don't value or esteem what you do for man than what what you do for the Lord. Imagine being invited and tasked to represent a President of a country you esteem. You will definitely see it as a great task. Whatever the Lord tells you to do, is a representation of Him. The task given to you by God are things He had desired to do, and He is entrusting you with it. Don't belittle His assignment for you or the dreams He has put in your heart. Your Heavenly Father's joy is to see you do something great for Him.

I remember one time, during my teens, I woke up excited about a Church excursion. Whiles getting ready the Holy Spirit spoke to me not to be too excited about the excursion and the funfair. He was like He is calling me to do great things for the Kingdom. And that is also the call of every saint. He has not called us to do what the people of the world can do. (This is not to deny the importance of social or societal responsibilities or engagements). However, I realised the Lord was redirecting my desires and how I perceive my walk with Him. That morning, the Lord prompted me to read the book of Isaiah. Interestingly, I started with Isaiah 49.

I don't think it was coincidence:

See what I found:

"The LORD said to me, "I have a greater task for you, my servant. Not only will you restore to greatness the people of Israel who have survived, but I will also make you a light to the nations so that all the world may be saved." Isaiah 49:6 (GNT)

Oh dear Lord.

This scripture opened my heart.

The moment I saw "I HAVE A GREATER TASK FOR YOU", I was moved into prayer. My heart began to burn with fresh passion and my mindset about God's Kingdom assignment was stretched or expanded.

All through the scriptures, anyone God called was made great. They were made great because the Lord did great things with or through them. Beloved, you are called by the Lord into His greatness. Think greatness and take great steps. Whatever the Lord tells you to do is great! Esteem the Lord's assignment for you.

It is a great thing to serve the Lord

Hallelujah

DIG DEEPER:

(Ephesians 2:10; 1 Thessalonians 1:3; Hebrews 11:6; Psalm 108:13 (BBE); Genesis 26:13)

WE PRAY:

We are praying and declaring that with God we do great things.

BIBLE READING

Day 121: 2 Kings 19-20

DECLARE THESE WORDS:

- I am the workmanship of God created in Christ Jesus unto good works.
- Through God, I do valiantly.
- I increase in capacity and grace as I labour with the Lord.
- I esteem the Lord's assignment for me than any self-centered desires.
- I take bold steps towards my kingdom assignment.

Oh Hallelujah, GLOREEEY!
